A Note From Pastor Andrew

Lots happening in the coming weeks. Lent kind of crept right up on us, I felt I should have been more prepared, but I wasn't alone. A few of my peers even said to me, "did you know Ash Wednesday is the 10th?" Life moves forward and so does the work of the Church. Don't forget to join us on Wednesdays for our prayer time from 11:30-12:30, our mid-week Lent services Wednesdays at 6:30pm, River of Hope Thursdays at 6:30pm, and of course Sunday Worship at 10am. Bring the world.

Our Ash Wednesday service along with First Presbyterian went wonderfully. There were over 50 people there. Look to the schedule for other shared services in the future. Also, don't forget the Valentine Brunch this Sunday after worship. There is going to be so much food. This is too much joy for Lent, right, or is it?

Blessings,

Pastor Andrew

Announcements

Please bring a dish to share for the potluck. Invite friends and family. You must go to www.makeandtakeyourown.com to prepay and sign up. If you have any questions or need help with this please see Katie Gookin or Mickki Smith.

Missing in Membership

With both our moves along with various other factors there are quite a few names on the church roles that could be labeled "inactive." Pastor doesn't like that term, instead let's consider them "missing in membership." If you might be interested in volunteering to contact some of those "missing," please let Pastor Andrew know. Let's build the Church!!!
